The hilarious ting is that they think cutting off food is going to help them. Any civilization is three skipped meals away from revolution.

That's the difference between the right and the left. When the left protests you better get your business out if there. When the right protests, get your food trucks in there!

10 ▼ The place can be identified pretty easily just from the contents of this photo, by the way. If the communist cunts wanted to find you, they'd at least find your hotel from this photo. Then, they'd know at least one hotel that's booking a bunch of out of town guests for the 6th. I'm thrilled that you're representing our nation! Please don't post a bunch of photos or video of your location before 11AM on the 6th.

2 ▼ I think, given the opportunity, they would harass hotels into evicting guests before the 6th even arrives. Not so much thinking about them finding you in person and I sure don't want to discourage what you're doing! Thanks for doing it! ✓

▼ Yea, I know some of us are so pro free enterprise, we don't want to say it, but (as you may have heard from Senator Josh Hawley recently) those corporations are the biggest pushers of cultural Marxism today and they despise us (patriotic American populists). I don't believe it takes much pressure to get the international corporations to comply with their own communist insurgents.

6 You shouldn't post your room. There are apps that are used for finding the hotels from pictures of child sex trafficking victims. Basically people post images of their hotel rooms and which hotel it is so that others are able to easily locate places based on an otherwise vague hotel room.

2 I did some research online and it looks like 4 different groups have applied for permits - Women for America First at Freedom Plaza, Wild Protest at the northeast quadrant of the Capitol lawn, a small group led by a South Carolinian named James Epley from the Mall to the Capitol, and the Eighty Percent Coalition which seems to be led by a woman who was an organizer for Women For America. That application was for Freedom Plaza too, but has been amended to request space at the Sylvan Theater near the Washington Monument. I guess we'll just keep monitoring things and look out for President Trumps tweets.
